

CONSTITUTION (Implemented at E. G. M. 23/9/98 and modified at A.G.M. 20/11/02.)

1. The Club shall be known as the Hornsea Amateur Radio Club.

2. The aims and objects of the club shall be to further all aspects of amateur radio.

3. Membership shall be open to all persons interested in amateur radio at the discretion of the Committee.

The club may give Honorary or Life Membership of the Club to those who have been of great service to the club. Any two members may nominate anyone. The nomination shall be passed to the elected committee members for consideration and if approved a proposal shall be put to the members at a General Meeting of the club.

4. Membership subscriptions shall be reviewed by the Committee from time to time and determined at the AGM. Certain members may be invited to pay a reduced subscription at the discretion of the Committee.

5. Subscriptions shall be paid annually and are due at the AGM.

Members in arrears of 3 months shall have their membership status reviewed by the Committee. Subscriptions of new members for the current year will be pro rata - quarterly.

6. The Committee shall be responsible for the administration and welfare of the club, premises, property and equipment and shall have the right to co-opt members as it considers necessary.

The Committee shall comprise:

The Chairman who shall be the Chairman of the Club and will be responsible for the conduct of meetings and has a casting vote in addition to his personal vote,

The Vice Chairman,

The Secretary who shall be responsible for keeping minutes of meetings and dealing with correspondence,

The Treasurer who shall present an audited balance sheet at the AGM, will receive members subscriptions and manage the club accounts,

6 ordinary members of the club,

The QSL manager who shall be ex officio.

The quorum at Committee meetings shall be 50% of the committee and although these meetings are open to all members, only Committee members may vote.

At a Committee meeting only a simple majority is required for proposals.

7. The Annual General Meeting.

Members shall be given 1 months notice in writing of the AGM, which will normally be held in November.

The notification will include a form for proposals for the AGM and nominations for the Committee.

This form is to be returned to the Secretary no later than 14 days before the date of the AGM.

Only notified business will be discussed and voted on at the AGM.

The business of the meeting is to discuss proposals, elect officers and committee for the following year and presentation of the balance sheet.

Voting procedure shall be by show of hands or ballot. Proxy voting may be arranged through the Committee.

Propositions shall be carried by at least two thirds of those present and eligible to vote.

8. An Extraordinary General Meeting to deal with club matters, Committee conduct or amendment of rules may be called by the Committee or 20% of the voting membership of the club.

No business other than that specified in the notice calling the meeting shall be transacted.

The voting procedure shall be as for the AGM.

9. In the event of winding up the club's affairs, the assets, after settlement of all outstanding debts, shall be divided among the members in proportion to the lengths of their current paid-up membership.
